Executive Directors IV, Florida

THE IMPORTANCE OF LEARNING:

"Everything takes time. Not everybody can advance quickly; the important thing is to endure. Those who succeed over the long term have taken the time to be trained, learn and grow inside. Learning is essential for achieving real success in this or in any business. No matter the industry, successful people aren't successful by pure luck. They have paid the price, they have trained themselves and they keep learning." —Josué Levis

LOOKING AHEAD

For Josué and Gedalia Levis, Melaleuca is the vehicle that has taken their family out of a financial crisis and carried them to a safe place. Shortly after the real estate market collapsed, Josué knew that his mortgage loan company wouldn't survive the recession. It was then, in June 2008, that he decided to enroll with Melaleuca. He left the pain of losing his only source of income behind and looked ahead, full of hope for a brighter future.

"Just the other day I was driving home, and I realized how small the rearview mirror is compared to the windshield," Josué says. "It was obvious to me: whatever happened in the past doesn't matter as much as what will happen in the future. Where you're going is much more important than where you've been. If you focus on the past, you'll miss what could be excellent opportunities."

Knowing that, Josué has built his Melaleuca business with dedication since day one, focusing on the right activities each and every day. "You have to make a habit of devoting time to your business every day," he explains. "If you do, you'll have a better quality of life in the future."

Josué knows that with every new contact and every enrollment, he's doing something that can have a huge impact on his business in the long run. It's the little daily decisions that make for a large residual income.

"Unlike other types of income, my residual income allows me to collect on work I did years ago. Over the last four years, my monthly Melaleuca check has averaged $11,202. The power of residual income is amazing."

Their latest advancement has filled Josué and Gedalia with gratitude for both Melaleuca and for their team. They know that by working together with their team, they will keep advancing toward their goals and they'll continue to be part of the miracle of enhancing lives.

"It's amazing to see how people come to Melaleuca with the hope of just getting ahead and, although it's not easy, witness all the amazing things they accomplish," Josué says. "My family and I are proud to be part of the Melaleuca family, and I can say that the best is yet to come." SV
